

Setting Recording Delay on new model DX / DL 1 DVR

1. There are now 2 settings to adjust to change the delay when ignition is turned off.
2. Default is set to 5 minutes (300 Seconds).
3. As per image below

4. Ignition Delay is for setting how long the DVR will stay powered up when ignition is switched off.
5. Video Delay is the setting for how long the unit will record Video when ignition switched off can only be set to the maximum time of the ignition delay has been set to.